TONIGHT'S SPOTLIGHT ON PRESTON VISITOR DAVID BROWN!

David hails from the North East and started his career with his native Middlesbrough and consistent displays prompted Oxford United to pull out the cheque book to the tune of £40,000 for his services.

It was Ian Greaves who set up Dave's move from Oxford to neighbours, Bury where he helped them gain promotion. As far as injury's go, Dave hasn't had the luckiest of breaks. He once had to play a Milk Cup game at West Ham with a broken finger. Then he was forced to undergo a back operation when a disc was causing the problem. Upon recovery he joined Preston and helped them gain promotion last term.

Among his team mates now are two ex-Wanderers favourites in Sam Allardyce and Frank Worthington. He says, "big Sam is doing very well and his experience is good for the other players and Frank is also good for the younger players."

Also at Preston is Walter Joyce, father of Warren and he's responsible for the Club's Youth Team, Dave added "Walter guided them to the League Championship last term."

We also hear of quite a promising youngster coming through the ranks and David reckons the name to watch for is Nigel Jemson, an 18 year old Preston lad who helped in the promotion bid last season.

SPONSORS OF THE FREIGHT ROVER TROPHY

Four seasons after the Freight Rover trophy first kicked off, we're still backing football.

Which makes Freight Rover Vans the longest lasting sponsors of a major trophy in the League.

But then, staying power comes naturally to the company which brings you the Sherpa range of vans.

Because the Sherpa leads the field for durability.

FROM BURNDEN PARK!

Last week saw the first of this season's Sportsman's Dinners take place in the Executive Club and there was a capacity audience.

Guest Speaker was Tommy Docherty, followed by a very funny man from Yorkshire, Ced Beaumont. Among celebrities in the audience were Stu Francis, Bill Waddington (Percy Sugden), Bill Tarmey (Jack Duckworth) Gordon Hill (ex-Man Utd & England) and more locally, two of the Houghton Weavers team, Norman Prince and Tony Berry.

The event was sponsored by Piccadilly Radio thanks to Bert Tatlock and Chris Bird. The audience roared when the Doc spoke about his days at Rotherham — where he promised to take them out of Division Two. He kept to his word and took them into Division Three. At one of his other Clubs, Tom spoke about a meeting with his Chairman and the Chairman told Tom he had decided to call it a day. "Don't do that, I think you're doing a good job" said Tom. "Not me" came the reply, "It's you, you're sacked."
